TERRIBLY Poor.-Terrebonne Parish, Tenner. Poor.—Terrebonne Farish, Louisiana, according to all accounts must be terribly poor. The Banner says: "This parish is so poor that no one will trust it for a three foot plank to stop up the holes made in the jail by the last inmates. Our jail would not hold an ambitious snail more than ten minties at the longest time. The an amountous shall more than ten min-utes at the longest time. The stove pipe used for the court house remains at the tin shop—the cause, no money to pay up. Who is to blame? That's the question."

The following anecdote has outlived its early youth, but it still reads well: John Phonix tells the story that he was one day leaving San Francisco by the steamer. Everybody else was taking leave of friends—but he did not know a soul in the crowd. Ashamed of his loneliness, as the boat sheered off he called out in a loud voice "Good-bye, Colonel!" and to his great delight, every man on the wharf took off his hat and shouted, "Colonel, good-bye!"

NEAR Fort Wayne, Indiana, last week there was foaled a colt which was part human. It had the head, neck, breast and fore-legs of a horse, and the rest of the body was human. It was fooled alive, and no doubt would have lived and been the greatest monstrosity ever created. The owner of the mare, howevar, killed the creature as soon as it CLOTHING suffering.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal emission is the consequence of self-sbuse. This solitary vice, or deprayed sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerting certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sollow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves or rattling of chariots, unessiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a displication to shun society, loss of memory, pimples and various eruptions about the face, heetic flushes, furred tongue, feetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomanis and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, you should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and acientific mode of treating disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Seminal Weakness.

Cured at Home. Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the dis-case has continued, and have medicine promptly ease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain di-rections for use. Persons writing to the Doctor will please state the name of the paper they see this advertisement in.
